

Nisqually Indian Tribe
Request for Qualifications
From Architectural Services Firms
For the Nisqually Log Cabin Church Renovation Project

The Nisqually Indian Tribe is requesting Statements of Qualifications from architectural firms to complete programming, design, and construction administration services for the proposed Nisqually Log Cabin Church Renovation Project, located on allotted trust land on the Nisqually Reservation. The church is an older log structure listed on the national historical register. The Tribe has allocated initial funds to complete architectural work and Phase I repairs. Firms interested in being considered for participation in the project should provide the following information:

1. Name of Firm.
2. Track Record in Completing Similar Projects
3. Outline of Approach to be used in Completing the Programming, Design and Construction Administration Tasks
4. List of References

The above information should be sent to the Nisqually Indian Tribe, 4820 She Nah Num Dr SE, Olympia, Wash. 98513. attn: Jill Wall, Procurement Officer, by the close of business August 18, 2017, 5 PM.

Firms with questions regarding the above should direct questions to Construction Project Manager David Iyall at (360) 456-5221, or iyall.david@nisqually-nsn.gov.